

It is bad enough that the FCC/FTC made the stupid decision to exempt political and charity phone calls. The government should not give TV & radio station that "special" to disturb the peace and quite of my home with unneeded and unwanted phone calls.